BTEC Applied Law Level 3

BTEC Applied Law is a challenging subject. It is a combination of internally and externally assessed assignments. You must be prepared to work hard from the start of the course, be organised in your approach to your studies and meet all deadlines if you want to be successful on this course.

But as a result, Law is also interesting. You get to look at Laws governing negligence, fatal and non-fatal offences (to name but a few) how our legal system works and will better understand the workings of our society.

When you achieve a good grade in BTEC Applied Law, you will open up a world of opportunities.
